A MESSAGE FROM CHARLES STURT UNIVERSITY

Charles Sturt University is deeply committed to fostering an inclusive culture that celebrates diversity in every aspect. Our support of the Wagga Wagga Mardi Gras Festival since its inception in 2019 underscores this commitment and we are honoured to continue our sponsorship of this event. By championing diversity and inclusion, we aim to create spaces where every individual feels safe, valued, respected, and empowered.

A MESSAGE FROM CARESOUTH

CareSouth, based in Wagga Wagga, is dedicated to improving lives through foster care, youth support, and residential accommodation. We welcome diverse foster carers who provide safe, loving homes, and embrace individuals of all backgrounds, including ethnicity, faith, sexual orientation, and gender identity.

Our Diversity and Inclusion committee, inclusive of LGBTIQ+ members, ensures support for all through initiatives like The Rainbow Room and partnerships with Minus18, fostering an environment where everyone feels seen and supported.
